Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Regina Clelland began working for the South Dakota State Department of Health in Vital Statistics upon her graduation from Northern State College, putting her associate degree in business to work for the people of this state; and,

WHEREAS, Regina's family came first, and when the Clellands began having vital statistics of their own, Regina left state government to raise their children, working only sporadically in the Departments of Health, Elementary and Secondary Education, and Natural Resources; and,

WHEREAS, When the four Clelland children were reared, Regina resumed full-time employment with the Vital Records Program, working continuously from November of 1976 until the present; and,

WHEREAS, Regina has been an exemplary employee who took great pride in her work and consequently did an outstanding job for the people of this state; and,

WHEREAS, Regina and her husband, Pereley, are retiring in order to fulfill a long-awaited desire to travel; and,

WHEREAS, Regina's co-workers will gather on December 6, 1985, to wish her well in her travels and to honor her upon the occasion of her retirement after sixteen years and six months of dedicated public service:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 6, 1985, as in South Dakota, and I join the grateful citizens of this state and Regina's many friends and co-workers in wishing her a happy and rewarding retirement and in thanking her for her years as a dedicated, loyal, conscientious and outstanding public servant.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Second Day of December, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Five
